

© Congratulations!!!

Madhav Patak S/o Dr. D.U. Patak has excelled in a no. of competitions, marking his presence in the scientific arena Madhav Patak an ex. Student of Joy Senior Secondary School has added feathers to the crown, his remarkable achievement are:

1. Represented India in the Intel International Science and Technology fair at Lucyvalia Kenteky U.S.A. from 12 to 18th May 2002.
2. CSIR (Council of Scientific & Industrial Research) organization selected him for Diamond Jubilee award for his exemplified achievement in scientific field as a student and was rewarded cash prize of Rs.50000/- by the org.
3. Madhav as excellent discovers student was awarded org. By WIPO (world intellectual property organization) as first Indian budding scientist.
4. A new satellite was discovered positioned between Mars ? Jupiter named. "Pathak" (1250 g) by Massachusetts technological Institution Linken Laboratory.
5. CSI awarded him fourth position in which he was honoured by cash prize of Rs.10000.
6. Intel international, organized a science fair in which he represented India for the second time which was held at Tokyo in Japan from 27th to 30th August 2004.

Hearty congratulations and our best wishes.